

Robb Report

Works of Art: 5 Residential Buildings with Stunning Sculptures and Art Installations

From New York City to Boston, these buildings were seemingly made for art lovers.

BY REBEKAH BELL ON AUGUST 16, 2017

For those who prize form just as much as function, the following residential buildings are sure to delight. From New York City to Boston to Miami, these real estate projects show off sculptures and art installations from five top artists.

#4

Arte by Antonio Citterio in Miami: Sculpture by Robert

Italian architect Antonio Citterio's Surfside project, Arte by Antonio Citterio, is itself a work of art, with glass-walled terraces that taper down the 12-story building. The 16-unit tower will attract art lovers for another reason, too: A sculpture made by American pop artist Robert Indiana graces the exterior. Fashioned from thin sheets of polychrome aluminum, the sculpture is an ode to Indiana's 1972 series.

<http://robbreport.com/shelter/spaces/slideshow/5-residential-buildings-with-art-sculptures/>